A note from the headteacher

World Book Day at Bladon

Thursday 1st March was World Book Day and the children and staff at Bladon really entered into the spirit of things. The day may have begun with freezing temperatures and the warning of snow but that did not deter the children and teachers from dressing up as characters from their favourite books.

The day started with an assembly presented by the teachers. The story teller, Mr Grimm (aka Mr Stokes) walked into the hall and the audience of children and their parents fell silent as he the story of Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs unfolded. The Wicked Queen (aka Mrs Fletcher) strode angrily on stage as the mirror told her that she was no longer the fairest of them all. The Wicked Queen plotted to kill Snow White as the dwarfs (aka the teachers) worked hard to save her. But in the end, it was the Prince (aka Matt) who finally saved the day. The parents and children really enjoyed the retelling of the story acted out by teachers.

If you have any questions or queries concerning the school or your child/children, please do not hesitate to speak to your child's teacher or contact me at school. Alternatively, you can email me at head.3146@bladon.oxon.sch.uk

After the play the children all were invited on stage to share who they had come to school dressed as. We had characters from many books such as: Burglar Bill, The Cat in the Hat, Tinkerbell, Harry Potty, Matilda, Alice in Wonderland, the Fantastic Mr Fox and Little Mrs Pepperpot. We even had the Magic Faraway Tree and Grandad in a homemade aeroplane. The teachers then had the very difficult decision as to who they thought should win a prize for both best dressed and effort. Congratulations to Dennis the Menace, The Magic Faraway Tree, Little Mrs Pepperpot and the White Rabbit who won a picture book for all of the work with their costumes.

After the assembly the children then spent the day with lessons focusing on picture books such as The Lost Thing and Tuesday and the stories they tell us. A wonderful day was had by all.

Next week is Science week. The children all have their white coats and we are really looking forward to seeing how they decorate them. The week will begin with an assembly to launch the event and from there the children will start their journey into the world of Science. Thank you to everyone for their support in putting the week together.
